

Angel Round Dining Table

The Angel design was inspired by Antony Gormley's Angel of the North sculpture, infusing an artistic spirit into its carefully considered form. It's a round dining table with a central base supported by three feet – a classic bistro-style staple, elevated. It can be custom made to any size – whether it's a breakfast, entrance, or large dining table that you're after. The legs can be finished in any of our standard or specialist finishes, with the option of a glass, marble, or wood top. Each Angel is a beautifully bespoke dining table that's crafted by hand to stand the test of time.
