

Avebury Dining Table made in Bronze

This special edition of our Avebury dining table offers a materially rich display that's sure to catch any eye. The top has been segmented into four pieces, which radiate outwards across the oval surface. Two of the segments are made from bronze and the other two in brass. They've all been patinated by hand to add a unifying sense of character. The base is equally intriguing in an energetic Verdigris finish, adding to the unique, personal quality of this custom dining table.
