

Exe Rectangular Dining Table

The Exe rectangular dining table is a fantastically versatile piece which works in any interior, from farmhouse to penthouse. It takes on a traditional format modelled after a refectory table. We've updated it for contemporary tastes with crisp metalwork across the two criss-cross bases and characterful hardwood on top. This is a customisable dining table with a wealth of materials and finishes to choose from, which you can combine to strike the right balance for your project.
