

Lexington Round Mirror

The Lexington is our most minimalist mirror. It's got a stunningly slim metal frame that brings a crisp and contemporary feel to just about any environment. This is a clean-cut design that creates the effect of a pristine porthole, amplifying light and imparting an illusion of spaciousness. We're happy to custom make the piece to suit your measurements, as well as complete it in your choice of standard or specialist finish. You've also got the option of clear or antiqued glass, allowing you to fine-tune this contemporary round mirror to your taste. The Lexington is also available in a rectangular format.
