

Phoenix Bar Stool

Three pieces of triangular steel nest together to make this stunning contemporary bar stool. The Phoenix collection is inspired by George Nelson's famous 'Marshmallow' sofa, carrying a nod to the mod style. Every element is made by hand with a meticulous attention to detail. All joins, for example, are executed to perfection, ensuring the Phoenix stool is beautiful from all angles. This is a customisable bar stool which can be tailor made to bespoke finishes and sizes, making it a wonderfully adaptable piece of bar furniture.
